Decision by the Commission of the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership establishing the Coordination Platform on Economic Coercion

27 November 2026

The Commission of the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership (Commission):

Recalling paragraphs 12 and 14 of the Joint Ministerial Statement on the occasion of the Ninth Commission Meeting of the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership (the "CPTPP") on 21 November 2025;

Pursuant to paragraph 2(a) of Article 27.2 (Functions of the Commission) of the TPP as incorporated into the CPTPP;

Recognising that economic coercion undermines the functioning of and confidence in a free, fair, open, and rules-based international trading system;

Reaffirming our shared concerns with and opposition to economic coercion that seeks to exploit economic vulnerabilities and dependencies, and that economic coercion is not in keeping with the high standards of the CPTPP, or the expectations of the Parties to the CPTPP;

Decides to:

Establish a Coordination Platform on Economic Coercion,

Adopt a Terms of Reference (ToR) for the Coordination Platform on Economic Coercion, which may be modified by the Senior Officials including on the recommendation of the Platform.

The decision is effective as of the date of adoption by the Commission and will be made publicly available by the Chair of the Commission.
